2020 NATIONAL SERVICE-LEARNING CONFERENCE ®

Unmask Your Potential

Call for Proposals Preview

Workshops are the heart of the conference, providing professional development opportunities for youth and adults alike. Strong proposals should show ties to curriculum, and include reflection components, youth voice, and community partnerships. The proposal should effectively describe the impact the program has on its community and how the initiative is unique and replicable for conference attendees.

Deadline for submissions is 11:59 p.m. CST on October 4, 2019. Notifications will be emailed October 18, 2019.

Questions included on the Call for Proposals include:

Workshop Title

Primary Presenter Qualifications and Experience (50 words or less)

Primary Target Audience (select one)

- All Participants
- K-12 Students
- College Students
- All Students, K-12 Teachers/Educators
- K-12 Administrators/Staff
- After School Professionals
- Community-Based Organizations/Nonprofit/AmeriCorps Staff
- Higher Education Staff
- All Adults

Secondary Target Audience (select one)

Describe how your workshop applies to the target audience. (50 words or less)

Provide a brief outline of your workshop session. (100 words or less)

What outcomes will participants gain from your workshop session? (100 words or less)

What specific skills will participants gain from your workshop session? (100 words or less)

Please provide a description of your workshop session. (500 words or less)

Please provide a brief description of your workshop for the program guide. (75 words or less)