

Invitation Letter

Dear Friend,

I am Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer, and this year, the Christmas Village is facing a big crisis! Santa Claus has suddenly decided to go on strike! This means that Christmas might not come as expected.

To ensure that children still receive their presents , we need your help to overcome this crisis!

We have divided the mission into two parts.

Reindeer Telephone Game

Ensure that the gift delivery plan is perfectly communicated to every reindeer and elf.

"Every detail is crucial, and nothing can be missed!"

Christmas Puzzle Painting

After receiving the message, the reindeers and elves decided to divide the Christmas mission into different parts. Each will take responsibility for one part and express their tasks through drawing.

"I'll take care of Santa's sleigh!"

"Then I'll handle the gift boxes!"

We need you to join our team and help preserve the joy and magic of childhood for the children. Your participation is highly anticipated.
